PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The 13th Annual St. Charles Restaurant Week is Back

ST. CHARLES, IL – The St. Charles Business Alliance is proud to announce that the 13th annual St. Charles Restaurant Week is back and will take place from Monday, February 20th – Friday, February 24th. There are 40+ participating restaurants in this years' event, and is a great opportunity to support locally.

Participating restaurants will offer a 15% discount on a total bill of $20 or more (not including alcohol, tax, and gratuity). This promotion applies to any time of the day the restaurant is open and is for dine-in only. In order to receive the discount, customers must mention that they are dining for St. Charles Restaurant Week to their waiter or waitress upon ordering.

Patrons will also have the opportunity to win a $25 gift card to a participating restaurant using the Travel St. Charles App. When dining during St. Charles Restaurant Week, individuals will be able to "Check-In" to the restaurant under the Restaurant Week Challenge on the "Challenges" tab. Individuals who "Check-Into" one or more restaurants will be entered to win. Six winners will be chosen out of the people who complete the challenge, and will be notified via email on February 27th.

St. Charles Business Alliance Executive Director, Jenna Sawicki, says she encourages everyone to dine for St. Charles Restaurant Week. "This is the perfect time to go out and try a new restaurant while supporting local" said Sawicki. "St. Charles has an outstanding culinary scene, and it's a great event to help showcase these establishments."
