PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Fourth-Annual STC Six Beer Launch on June 18th – Brewing for a Cause

ST. CHARLES, IL – The STC Six is launching their fourth-annual collaborative beer to support a local non-profit organization, with this year benefitting Support Over Stigma. The STC Six is made up of six St. Charles Breweries: 93 Octane Brewery, Alter Brewing + Kitchen, Broken Brix Fermentation Emporium, D&G Brewing, Pollyanna Brewing & Distilling, and Riverlands Brewing. The breweries invite everyone to join in on the celebration for a great cause with the first opportunity to taste the new beer on June 18 starting at 5 p.m. at Pollyanna Brewing & Distilling – 106 S. Riverside Ave., St. Charles, IL 60174.

Eric Bramwell, Riverlands Brewing's Head Brewer/Co-Founder, talks about what patrons can expect from this year's collaborative beer. "The STC Six 2025 is a West Coast Pilsner – a true beer lover's beer that combines the hoppiness of a Pale Ale with the crisp drinkability of a Pilsner," said Bramwell. "Brewed with lager yeast, and hopped with Simcoe, Krush, Riwaka and Rakau hops, one can expect notes of citrus, tropical fruit, and a bit of pine."

The 2025 STC Six collaborative beer will be available at five breweries in St. Charles while supplies last (93 Octane Brewery, Alter Brewing + Kitchen, Broken Brix Fermentation Emporium, Pollyanna Brewing & Distilling, and Riverlands Brewing). One dollar from every sale of the STC Six Collaborative Beer and the limited-edition glassware will go towards Support Over Stigma, a local non-profit that provides essential services for military personnel, veterans, and first responders to help them overcome the mental health and service-related challenges they encounter. Since its founding in 2020, Support Over Stigma has supported over 26,000 individuals with live-saving outreach, educational programs, and addressing trauma-induced mental health.
